Blue's Clues is an American children's television series airing on the Nickelodeon family of channels. The series takes place inside a picture book world in which everything is made of paper cutouts, clay, and other craft materials. It is presented by a live-action human host who lives in a yellow house inhabited by everyday objects that talk and move.

Milton Supman (January 8, 1926 – October 22, 2009), known professionally as Soupy Sales, was an American comedian, actor, radio/television personality, and jazz aficionado. He was best known for his local and network children's television show, Lunch with Soupy Sales (1953-1966), a series of comedy sketches frequently ending with Sales receiving a pie in the face, which became his trademark.

Emergent Reader: I also created an emergent reader for this book using the DLTk graphics. I changed the formatting somewhat from the original Brown Bear book. Instead of having the text where the reader had to memorize what was on the next page, I moved the text to where it was on the same page as the picture so that the reader could use the picture cues to support the text.
